What is the Risk Management Leadership Program?

The Risk Management Leadership Program (RLP) provides a solid career foundation by developing an overall understanding of risks that are inherent to a financial institution. Our goal is to invest in future leaders who will create and oversee consistent risk management practices that balance risk and reward for our shareholders.

During the two-year program, participants complete four six-month rotations designed to provide a solid foundation in operational risk, credit, capital markets risk and compliance. Rotation assignments follow a collaborative approach to ensure you are maximizing your current and potential skill set. Under the guidance of an experienced manager, you will develop your analytical, technical and leadership skills. Rotation opportunities:

- Operational Risk Management.
- Capital Markets Risk Management.
- Treasury & Mortgage Risk.
- Risk Strategies & Reporting.
- Bank Protection / Fraud.
- Quality Control.

Why Choose our Program?

The RLP accelerates your career development by offering exposure to executive leaders, creating extensive networking opportunities and providing senior and peer mentoring relationships. The RLP consists of comprehensive on-the-job training supplemented by educational opportunities focused on developing your banking, business, leadership and team-building skills. The program is designed to enhance your career progression and performance through several key areas of focus:

Other key aspects of the program include:

- Development of communication and formal presentation skills.
- Senior and peer mentors who assist with career development, coaching and feedback.
- Value-added rotations that directly impact business and customer results.
- Improving business results through strategic and critical thinking.
- Community service opportunities.
- Extensive networking opportunities.

Risk Management Leadership Program

What Recent LP Graduates are Saying

Matt B. graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a dual major in Operations Management and Finance before starting the program.

"My leadership program experience presented opportunities to lead projects, people and multi-functional processes that all directly impact the livelihood of our customers and the communities we serve. Those opportunities prepared me to view the Bank from both a customer-centric and regulatory perspective, which governs my role within Enterprise Risk."

Fifth Third Bank Leadership Testimony

"Excellence in risk management is a business imperative, and a critical part of our strategy is to make proactive risk management an enduring part of our DNA. This strategy is about investing in our talent, technology and culture to strengthen the way that all of us anticipate, manage and mitigate risk. I'm excited to build a new Risk Management Leadership Program that will develop future leaders who can execute this strategy."

Frank Forrest, executive vice president, chief Risk officer.
